A LITTLE TALK

On Tortoise Shells by Hight & Fairfield, Jewelers.

Among the reasons why Tortoise Shell is the most suitable material from which hair ornaments can be made are these:

It does never split or warp.
It never becomes rough.
The color is varied and beautiful.
It is susceptible of high and lasting polish.
It is strong and light.
Its firmness allows the most elaborate carving.
It can be restored as new when broken.

Our Fall Stock of these goods, consisting of hair pins, combs, side combs and lognettes has just come in. There are many shapes entirely new. Some styles are perfectly plain, some are slightly, some elaborately carved. It is the largest assortment of such goods ever shown in this section. There are more than 150 different designs. The prices are nearly as low as imitation shells. We illustrate three styles. The prices range:

Side Combs, per pair, from 50c to $2.50.
Hair Pins, single prong, $1.25 to $4.
Hair Pins, two prongs, $1.25 to $3.
Combs from $2 to $15.
Lognettes from $7 to $25.

If out of town customers will state the amount they wish to pay we will send subject to their approval. There is not an o.d. or undesirable pattern in the lot. We invite your inspection.

FOR $20,000 DAMAGES

The Estate of Michael McAndrews Sues the Utah Northern Road.

WAS RUN OVER BY THE CARS

Grave Charges of Fraud Against President White of the First National Bank of Dillon—Other U. S. Court Notes.

Butte, Sept. 4.—In the United States court to-day Philip J. McAndrews, administrator of the estate of his brother, Michael McAndrews, commenced a suit against S. H. H. Clark and other receivers of the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Railway company for $20,000 damages for the death of Michael McAndrews, as the result of injuries received while a passenger on one of the defendants' trains. In the complaint the plaintiff recites that he was appointed by the court of Beaverhead county as administrator of the estate of the deceased, and alleges that on March 13, 1895, Michael McAndrews took passage on the Union Pacific at Butte for Glen, Mont., and that upon the arrival of the train at the latter place the defendants, through their agents and employees, negligently and carelessly in violation of their contract, failed to stop the train and carried McAndrews a mile and a half beyond his destination and compelled him to step off while the train was yet moving and in such a manner that he was thrown from the steps of the car and under the wheels of the car and run over by the train, breaking his foot and limbs and mangled his body. The complaint further alleges that McAndrews was permitted to lie uncoared for on the track for four hours or more and for more than 24 hours thereafter he received no food, care or medical attendance, and then the company took him by a long and tedious and dangerous ride of 10 hours to Ogden. He suffered for two days and then died and his estate sustained damages in the sum of $20,000. The deceased left as next of kin and his sole heirs, his mother Mrs. Nora McAndrews, and his brothers, Anthony and Philip J. McAndrews. Carroll & Leach are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Several years ago M. McAndrews sued the same railroad company for personal injuries and obtained a verdict for $5,000, but the case was appealed and sent back for a new trial and was still unsettled when McAndrews was killed at Glen by the same defendants therein.

Grave Charges of Fraud.

A suit of the First National bank of Dillon against William G. Gaigher of Chicago to quiet title to the E. M. Wilson and Nettie quartet lode claims, located in the Blue Wing district of Beaverhead county, of which both claim ownership was to-day transferred from the Beaverhead district court to the United States court. An answer and cross bill was also filed by the defendant, who alleges that he purchased a third interest in the E. M. Wilson and Nettie lodes and never sold any part of his interests to anyone. While he was so the owner of the property he executed a power of attorney to President White of the bank and it was understood that Mr. White should make a sale of the property to one Philip Shanon and a contract for the sale was entered into with Shanon for $11,666.67, to be paid to Gaigher by Shanon in installments. While the contract was in full force Mr. White, without power or authority, and after authority had expressly been refused him, entered into another contract with Shanon whereby he agreed to sell him the property for the reduced price of $8,000, which act was repudiated by the defendant, who then revoked the power of attorney on Jan. 11, 1894. On Dec. 10, 1892, the defendant gave a note to Mr. White for $10,000 and also gave a mortgage on certain real estate in Beaverhead county. The plaintiff alleges that the note was transferred to the bank but the defendant claims that the bank never had lawful possession of it. The defendant further alleges that he has never been financially able to pay the note exacted by the sale of the mortgage property. On Dec. 28, 1894, Mr. White and the bank wrongfully and unlawfully and with fraudulent intent to take undue advantage of the defendant's financial condition and defraud him of his rights in the mining claims mentioned and acquire them for the bank at a grossly inadequate price, conspired and secretly agreed that Mr. White should fraudulently act under his power of attorney and convey the defendant's interests in the mining claims for a pretended consideration of $4,000 and that such pretended consideration should be endorsed on the note as a payment thereon. In pursuance of the conspiracy a deed was executed to the bank by White and the sum fraudulently endorsed on the note, though the consideration was never paid to the defendant or any other person. The plaintiff and Mr. White well knew that the property was worth fully $11,666.67. The defendant never endorsed or approved the pretended sale and as soon as he discovered it he expressly disapproved it and refused to be bound by the transaction. In equity and good conscience," says the answer, "the defendant should not be bound by the deed of conveyance, but the same should be decreed as unauthorized and as fraudulent and void and as carrying no title to the said bank." After the pretended sale the bank went into possession of the property and has mined and disposed of large quantities of ore to the manifest wrong and injury of the defendant. Gaigher recognizes that he is remediless by the strict rules of the common law and that he is only relievable in a court of equity, wherefore he asks that on a trial of the case the bank be perpetually enjoined from further prosecuting its action against him and that the deed of conveyance was and is fraudulent and void and be canceled. He also asks that an accounting be taken of the ores taken from the mines.

Another suit between the same parties is on the $10,000 note mentioned above and to foreclose a mortgage on a half interest in the Governor Tilden, Woolley, Florida Reform, Spring, Fraction and Burleigh lodes, and a half interest in the Fraction placer, all located in Beaverhead county. In his plea to the latter action Gaigher denies that the note was assigned to the bank by White for a valuable consideration and denies that the bank is now the lawful owner of the note. As a further answer to the action on the note the defendant repeats his charges of fraud and conspiracy between the bank and White to get possession of the property and defraud the plaintiff out of his rights. Gaigher is represented by Bennett, Marshall & Bradley of Salt Lake and Forbis & Forbis of Butte.

Not Guilty.
E. L. Spalding and William Haidlow, two counterfeiters, pleaded not guilty this morning. In the case against George Harbour it was found that E. S. Booth could not act as attorney for the defendant and Howard Paschal was appointed in his place. The petition of the plaintiff in the case of E. E. Congdon against the Massachusetts Loan & Trust company to file a supplementary bill was reset for hearing on Friday.

The motion for a new trial in the damage suit of Frost against the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern was also set for hearing on Friday.

Jeff Thoroughman, William Gudelhof and H. C. Worthington were appointed as bailiffs.

New complaints were filed this morning in the damage suits of Thomas Stearns and J. F. Featherly against the Montana Union. They ask for $30,000 and $35,000, respectively.

J. C. Wagner will plead to-morrow to the charge of taking from the Lima postoffice a letter that did not belong to him.

AFTER THE SESSION.

The Ladies of Equal Suffrage Return to Their Homes in Butte.

Butte, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Minnie Atchison, Miss Viola Haas and Mrs. Dunkle, returned to-day from Helena, where they attended, as delegates from Butte, the first state convention of the Women's Suffrage convention of Montana. The convention was called to order Tuesday in G. A. R. hall by Miss Serpentina Sanders of the Helena club. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers. Miss Sanders made a graceful address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Dunkle of Butte. Letters were read from Miss Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw, rendering words of greeting to the new state organization. Mrs. W. W. Wylie of Bozeman was chosen temporary president and Dr. Mary B. Atwater of Marysville secretary. Mrs. Chapman Cott, the national organizer, gave a very interesting talk on the origin and advancement of the women's suffrage movement from its inception to the present time. She is considered one of the most eloquent speakers ever heard in the West. Col. W. F. Sanders spoke in the afternoon, testifying that he favored woman suffrage in the ratio of 16 to 1. Mrs. Chapman Cott spoke to an enraptured audience for an hour in favor of the woman's suffrage amendment.

A constitution was adopted and routine business transacted at the next session, after which the following permanent officers were elected: Mrs. W. S. Sanders, Helena, president; Mrs. Rolfe, Great Falls, vice president; Mrs. Dr. Kellogg, Helena, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Matt Alderson, Bozeman, recording secretary; Dr. Mary B. Atwater, Marysville, treasurer; Mrs. Dunkle, Butte, Mrs. Knowlton, Missoula, auditors; Mrs. W. W. Wylie, Bozeman, member of the executive board of the National American Woman's Suffrage association. Lieutenant Governor Boldin spoke in an interesting manner, followed by Rev. T. V. Moore, who spoke on "Woman in Municipal Affairs." The Tuesday evening session was presided over by Mrs. Sanders in a very happy manner. Dr. Atwater of Marysville spoke, followed by Mrs. Knowlton-Haskell on the "Legal Status of Woman." Mrs. Chapman Cott spoke again in a most interesting manner. A letter was read from Governor Rickards endorsing the movement, and regretting his inability to be present.

A Most Welcome Message.
Butte, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Decker of Walkerville, has received a letter from her son, who was reported to have been killed in the Gurney hotel explosion at Denver. Young Decker was at one time a bell boy in the hotel and his mother was informed that he was in the building at the time of the explosion. The poor woman suffered untold anguish and mourned the boy as lost until she received the letter from him. He wrote that he was at Colorado Springs at the time of the explosion.

It Is One of the Best That Has Been Made by the Police Department.

Butte, Sept. 4.—Chief Tebo's report for August is one of the best that has ever been made by the police department, and shows a remarkably small number of dismissals. It shows that there were 384 arrests made during the month, 240 of which were males and 144 females. There were 342 convictions obtained and only 8 were dismissed. DR. TODD'S CASE.

He Has Something to Say in His Own Behalf.

Butte, Sept. 4.—The case of Dr. William Todd has been set for trial next Monday, and the case will doubtless be a test case between the state medical board and the physicians who are characterized by the board as "irregular." The board does not consider it proper professional conduct to advertise in newspapers, which Dr. Todd is guilty of doing, the advertisement of his private dispensary appearing in the Standard.

Dr. Todd said to-day: "I came to Butte years before this medical board was in existence, and after the passing of the new medical law I was one of the first to comply with it and receive my license. I claim the right to advertise my business. The medical board denies me this right. I spend my money in Butte and pay my debts. As an American citizen, I shall protect my interests in the courts of the country, no matter how far it may be carried."
